Bottineau Community Prevention Coalition Announces Winners from Town Hall Event

Bottineau, N.D. –Community members participated in a Town Hall Event, regarding underage drinking, at the recent Parent Teacher Conferences in Bottineau. Community members were asked to complete a short quiz to be eligible for a chance to win a Kindle Fire or Wal-Mart gift card.

During the conferences, 268 people participated. The coalition was encouraged by the number of participants and excited about the amount of community support.

Mark Onarheim was the winner of the Kindle Fire. Heather Coleman and Alison McWhinnes were the winners of the $50 Wal-Mart gift cards. The gift cards were donated by the Bottineau Wal-Mart Super Center.

Congratulations to the winners and thank you Bottineau community for participating in this important event!

Coalition members were on hand at the event providing information on the upcoming substance abuse prevention efforts.

The Bottineau Community Prevention Coalition is part of the Targeted Communities program, which is under the North Dakota Department of Human Services' Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services Division. The coalition works with the State Prevention Team in developing unique plans to address and prevent alcohol and other substance abuse.

For more information or to get involved in the coalition efforts, contact Sue Brandvold, First District Health Unit, 701-228-3101 or sbrandvold@nd.gov.
